After dinner it'll be eyes down for bingo mania kindly organised by Gala Coral – if luck is on your side you could win a fabulous prize such as a night's stay for two at Weetwood Hall, a Sunday lunch for four at Weetwood Hall or a night for two at Thorpe Park Hotel! So get those dabbers ready!

And the fun doesn't stop there – after bingo you can dance the night away to your favourite pop-tastic tunes as the disco plays on into the night.

This is definitely a fundraising night that you don't want to miss!

Notes to Editors:

The Sick Children's Trust runs seven Homes from Home at major hospitals around the country where families can stay free of charge, for as long as they need whilst their child is undergoing treatment - one such house is Eckersley House at St James' Hospital. There is a growing demand for the Homes from Home as children must increasingly travel long distances to get the specialist treatment they need.

In essence, The Sick Children's Trust ensures that the very basic of all medicines has a chance to work; family love and support. They ensure that mum has a private room to cry, dad can get some much needed sleep, and siblings are cocooned in love and not left out. But most importantly, they help families to stay close by to their sick child at all times making a real difference to their recovery; mum and dad are there for the morning kiss, bedtime story and that all important hug in the middle of the night when things seem really scary.

To date they have helped more than 30,000 families. To run the 'Homes from Home' they rely entirely on voluntary donations; and need to raise nearly £1million this year to keep them open.
