

Gingerbread House Challenge Registration Form

Thank you for registering your interest in this year's Gingerbread House Challenge! Registration is really simple; just follow the instructions below to reserve your plot!

Entry Fee

Entry to the Gingerbread House Challenge is £5 and 100% of this donation will go to The Sick Children's Trust's Crawford House, our 'Home from Home' at the Royal Victoria Infirmary in Newcastle upon Tyne.

To pay your registration fee, please use the secure payment link in the email sent to you from Caroline O'Doherty. Please read the event rules and instructions below and complete the registration form, returning it to caroline@sickchildrenstrust.org before November 27th 2013.

Baking, Building & Decorating Rules

- This is a Gingerbread House challenge therefore the building must be built from gingerbread.
- You can use any gingerbread recipe you like – check out our Facebook page facebook.com/gingerbreadhousechallenge for recipes and ideas.
- You can use Gingerbread House Kits - this is a construction & decoration competition
- All structural parts must be made from Gingerbread
- Everything on the cakeboard must be completely edible (sweet wrappers/lollysticks are acceptable)
- Gardens/Landscaping is optional but must be within the board-dimensions.
- Gingerbread Houses will be judged on their decoration (& construction)
- All entrants must submit an entry form and pay the appropriate fee in advance of the event – then you will be given a house number or building name in the village.
- Entries must be brought on a board sized 12ins x 10ins or 30cm x 25cm - this includes any exterior landscaping/gardens

On The Day

- All Gingerbread Houses must be on site before 1.30pm
- All Gingerbread House construction teams must be on site for prize giving at 3.00pm
- After the winners have been announced - Gingerbread Houses will be dismantled and eaten by event participants & guests or you can take your Gingerbread House home
- All competitors enter at their own risk
