

Communications Manager

This is an exceptionally exciting time to join The Sick Children's Trust as we make plans to celebrate our 40th Anniversary of keeping families together and develop our new five year strategy.

The Communications Manager we're looking for will be a creative self-starter with excellent verbal and written skills, have strong management skills to mentor our Communications Officer and be able to support the Head of Communications. This is a brand new role which is varied and interesting where you can utilise your broad skills and make a real difference to the charity.

Your experience and skills will include:

- Exceptional communications skills across all channels
- Line management experience
- Experience of developing plans
- Significant experience of building and maintaining strong relationships with stakeholders

We offer an excellent benefits package including a 35 hour working week, flexible working, 25 days annual leave, pension scheme, permanent health insurance scheme and a commitment to your wellbeing.

If you'd like to join a very friendly, committed, hardworking and high achieving team, then please submit your CV and a covering letter to recruitment@sickchildrenstrust.org

Please state why you wish to work for The Sick Children's Trust as the Communications Manager and how you meet the person specification in your application.

Closing Date: Friday 8 October at 5pm

We are reviewing applications as we receive them, so early application is advised. We reserve the right to amend the closing date.
