

Senior Digital Officer

The Senior Digital Officer holds a key role within The Sick Children's Trust as they will enhance our digital presence and help ensure we use a digital first approach. They will drive forward our strategy, advise and support colleagues, manage our email marketing programme and utilise their creativity.

The person we're looking for will be a self starter, problem solver, have a high level of technical and analytical skills and love collaborating. If this sounds like you we'd love to hear from you.

Your experience and skills will include:

- Exceptional knowledge of digital technologies and their uses
- Strong relationship management
- Excellent problem solving
- Strong interpersonal skills

If you'd like to join a very friendly, committed, hardworking and high achieving team, then please submit your CV, completed questionnaire, and a covering letter to recruitment@sickchildrenstrust.org

Please state why you wish to work for The Sick Children's Trust as the Senior Digital Officer and how you meet the person specification in your application.
